Sir,

SUBJECT:— APPOINTMENT OF A CARETAKER TO THE MUSAFIRKHANA AT GUNDLUPET.

I have the honour to inform that a musafirkhana building which was under the control of the District Board had been given over to the Education Department for holding the local school. This was handed over to the District Board in the latter part of December 1930. As the building was in charge of the Education Department temporarily there was no necessity for running an establishment to look after the building. Soon after its reversion a necessity arose to appoint a caretaker as the building had to be made available for the travelling public. On the recommendation of the Range Sanitary Insoector and as there was probability of the buildin being damaged if left uncared for, Orders were issued to appoint a caretaker temporarily on a pay of Rs 9/- per month from 4th February 1931 subject to the sanction of the Board and Government.
